The whole Extent of this Engliſh Continent is about 1800 Miles, while the French Courſe on the Back of us is upwards of 3000 Miles.

LONDON, April 27.

Extract of a private Letter from a Gentleman at New-York, to a Merchant in London.

"IF unblemiſhed Uprightneſs, unwearied Diligence, uncommon Spirit and Capacity, joined to every amiable Virtue, could give a Man Glory, and ſave him from Diſgrace, the Squirrel Man of War could not have brought here, on the 4th of this Month, Orders to recall Lord Loudoun from his Command. During the Time he has exerciſed it, he has not paſſed an Hour but in acting or meditating for the public Intereſt, with an Intenſeneſs that has hurt his Health."

The St. John Baptiſt, from Barbary to Marſeilles, is taken by the Eagle Privateer of Briſtol, and carried into Leghorn.

The Dolly, from Glaſgow, to Cape Fear, is retaken by the Veſtal Man of War, and brought into Plymouth.

A Sloop from Ireland, with Proviſions, is taken off Breſt by the Phœnix Privateer, and brought into Briſtol.

The Halifax, Mitchell, from North-Carolina for London, is taken by the Jupiter Privateer, of Bayonne.

The ——, Rogers, from London, to Dublin, is taken by a French Privateer, and ranſomed for 300 Guineas.

The Dolabella, of and from London, Captain Dean, from North-Corolina, is arrived at Dartmouth. She had been taken by the Granville Privateer, and was ranſomed for 700l.

April 29. Wedneſday laſt two Boats of a new Conſtruction, built for landing of his Majeſty's Forces in ſhallow Waters, were launched, and ſailed down the Thames: They are deſigned to carry 50 Soldiers each with their Arms, are rowed by 20 Oars, and go much ſwifter than any other Veſſels on the River.

Same Day the Right Hon. the Lord Anſon, with divers other Perſons of Diſtinction, went to Woolwich in the Admiralty Barge, to view the above Boats; and we hear that Orders are given for building more on the ſame Plan.

The Engliſh Privateer, taken by the Roſe Frigate and carried into Malta, proves to be the Tyger of Briſtol.

The Legere, Prize to the Phœnix Privateer of Jerſey, is arrived at Jerſey.

The Hero, Prize to the Bellona Privateer of Guernſey, is arrived at Guernſey.

LIVERPOOL, April 21.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Walter Kirkpatrick, late Commander of the Ship Pemberton, from hence for Africa, to his Owners in this Town, dated Bayonne, March 25, 1758.

"On the 15th Inſtant, we had the Misfortune to fall in with the Machault Privateer of Bayonne, Monſ. Leon Dickſcar Commander, mounting 24 Fourteen-Pounders on one Deck, 2 Six-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck, and 320 Men (having outſailed our Conſorts, the Hope Frigate, and Brig Providence, the Squirrel, Capt. Keviſh, being the only Veſſel then in Company, but ſhe bore away as ſoon as the Action began): We were at firſt deceived by the Privateer, taking her for a homeward bound Merchantman, but, on diſcovering her Force, made ſail and kept a running Fight with our Stern-Chace two Hours and an Half; ſhe ſoon gained on us, and when within Piſtol-ſhot, we fired Broadſide for Broadſide, an Hour and an Half, and had it not been for the continual Fire from her Small-Arms, whoſe Balls were like Showers of Hail, and obliged my Men to run from their Quarters, perhaps we might have got clear, notwithſtanding her ſuperior Force.—Thus overpowered, we were obliged to ſtrike——Our Rigging, Maſt, Yards, and Sails were very ill ſhattered, though our People were tolerably well ſheltered.—Four of our People were wounded, all the Reſt in good Health.—The Captain and Officers behaved very well to us, the former complimented me with my Hanger, ſaying I deſerved one for fighting ſo long, and ordered me all my Cloaths, Watch, Books and Inſtruments, of which I got Part, the Remainder being plundered during my being on board the Privateer, which I think is as near the Model of the Liverpool Man of War as poſſible.——This Day we are ordered all into cloſe Confinement, and thoſe who can find Bail for 150l. are allowed to go on Parole about ten Miles into the Country."

BOSTON, June 26.

We have Advice from New Providence, that a Ship from Philadelphia, (formerly a Prize Snow ſent into this Port by the late Province Snow Prince of Wales) was taken on her Paſſage to the Weſt-Indies, and afterwards re-taken by a New-Providence Privateer, and ſent into that Port.

Saturday laſt returned from a Cruize, the Privateer Ship Pownal, Capt. Sample, of this Place. Beſides the Prizes taken by her, as already mentioned, ſhe alſo took on her Way Home, a ſmall French Privateer of 2 Carriage and 8 Swivel Guns, and 50 Men, which ſhe ordered for this Port, and is daily expected.

Several Veſſels arrived here ſince our laſt from Halifax, the Maſters of whom ſay, that no Advice had been received there from the Fleet, ſince they ſailed, which was near three Weeks. As they came out of the Harbour they ſaw a Quantity of Flour and Biſcuit, with many other Things, floating on the Water; which makes it feared that ſome Engliſh Store-ſhip has lately been caſt away near Halifax, as ſome of the Biſcuit which they took up, had the King's Mark on it.

Part of a Letter from Flat-Buſh, June 12, 1758.

——"The Soldiers are all well, and in high Spirits: Great Preparations are making for a ſpeedy Preſſure into Canada. A few Days ago two Frenchmen, Deſerters from Canada, came in, and report that the French are greatly diſtreſſed for want of Proviſions, Horſe-Fleſh ſelling at a great Price amongſt them. They alſo ſay, that ſeven Battalions were ſent from Canada to Cape-Breton, to aſſiſt the French at that Place, the Beginning of May; and that they never heard of any Expedition this Way againſt them, till a few Days ago."

By a Veſſel from the Weſt Indies we hear, that Capt. Aſh, in a Sloop from Surinam for this Place, is taken by a French Privateer, and his Veſſel carried into Guadaloupe. The Frenchmen put Capt. Aſh on board a Dutch Ship bound to Euſtatia, where he arrived before the above Veſſel came away.

We alſo hear, that the Fleet for Europe, ſailed from St. Kitts the 5th of this Inſtant, conſiſting of 160 Sail, under Convoy of ſeveral Men of War.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer on board the Privateer Brig Defiance, Ezek Hopkins, Commander, belonging to Providence, dated on board, on the North Side of Hiſpaniola, 27th May, 1758.

"The Veſſel by whom you have this, ſailed from Breſt about 10 Weeks ago, with 5 Men of War, and 11 Merchant-Ships, bound to this Place, which I believe are not yet got in, and this being the firſt we have had any Account of, we took the 24th Inſtant, within 5 Leagues of the Cape. You may expect 3 French Frigates daily on the Coaſt of New-England, to cruize the Summer Seaſon, ſent from France by a Company of Merchants, for that Purpoſe; one mounting 36 Guns, one 32, and the other 28 Guns, and all extreme good ſailing Ships, built for that Coaſt, to cruize between South Carolina and the Capes of Delaware. I believe that our Expedition againſt Louiſburg will meet but with little Oppoſition by Sea, for the 15 Ships of the Line deſtined for that Place from France, are ſtopped on Account of Sickneſs on board, and not being ſufficient to withſtand the Engliſh Fleet. It ſeems they are well acquainted in France with our Deſigns in America, and much fear the Conſequence."

NEWPORT, in Rhode-Iſland, June 26.

We hear from Providence, that on Wedneſday laſt was ſent in there, a Prize Sloop of about 75 Tons, taken 17 Days before her Arrival, by Capt. Randal, in the Sloop Black Snake of Providence. She was bound from Miſſiſippi to Cape-François. Her Cargo conſiſts entirely of Logwood.

From Providence we likewiſe learn, that the Perſon who was Maſter of the Privateer Sloop, lately taken by Capt. Angel of that Place (and mentioned in the Boſton Papers) proves to be the ſame who was formerly firſt Lieutenant of the L'Amerique Privateer, who engaged the Jamaica Packet; the Captain whereof making a brave Reſiſtance, as ſoon as taken, had his Ears and Noſe cut off, and he and his People otherwiſe treated in a moſt cruel and barbarous Manner. He is now in cloſe Confinement in Providence Goal, by Order of his Honour the Governor; and it is hoped the Villain will meet with a deſerved Puniſhment. The chief Command devolved on him, by the Captain of the Privateer being killed, and the ſecond Lieutenant being ſent away the Day before the Engagement.

NEW-YORK, July 3.

A few Days ſince, a Flag of Truce ('tis ſaid of 30 Men) came into Fort-Edward, from Canada, to demand the Return of the brave Col. Peter Schuyler, of New-Jerſey, agreeable to Engagement,

ment, Monſieur Montcalm having rejected the Propoſals that were offered with Regard to his Exchange; and the Colonel, we hear, ſet out Yeſterday for Albany, in Conſequence thereof. It is reported, that the General intends to uſe his utmoſt Endeavours to eſcort both the Colonel, and the Truce, ſafe back to Canada: And that he will detain the Frenchmen for that Purpoſe, leſt their too haſty Return might occaſion Monſ. Vaudruille, to put himſelf to too great Trouble and Expence, in forming of Ceremonies to receive ſo Great a Body.

Theſe Frenchmen, we are told, after ſome little Examination gave out, that Monſieur Montcalm was gone down to Louiſburg, with a great Part of his Regulars: And that at Ticonderoga, there were 8 Regiments, beſides Canadians and Indians, thought to be between 4 and 5000:——Rogers's Information ſeems to ſtrengthen the latter Account; as he ſaw them very buſy, and eſtimated them at about 3000. And that Crown-Point was but indifferently garriſoned.

Saturday, the 17th ult. was the Day Lord Howe marched with 3000 Men, to take Poſt betwixt Fort-Edward and Lake-George; and on the Monday following he advanced to the Lake; when 3000 Men more went and took Poſſeſſion of his Encampment;—and by Saturday the 24th, all the Whale-boats, Battoes, Proviſions, and all Things neceſſary were to be at the Lake; ſo, that laſt Week it was imagined they would proceed to Ticonderoga, as on Thurſday the Main Body was to move from Fort-Edward.

Part of a Letter dated New-York, May 31, 1758, and ſent to a Perſon at Portſmouth, in New-Hampſhire, taken out of the Boſton News-Letter of June 22, 1758.

"I need not inform you, I ſuppoſe, how juſtly Lord Howe is celebrated here for his robuſt Soldier-like Conſtitution, his bold enterprizing Spirit, and every other Military Accompliſhment; with how much Care he has been forming his regular Troops to the Method of Buſh-fighting all this Seaſon; ſo that he has now, it is ſaid, made them as dextrous at it, almoſt, as the Rangers.—In order to this, he has ordered all the Coats of his Regiment to be cut ſhort, to make them as light as poſſible; and has ſacrificed a fine Head of Hair of his own, as an Example to the Soldiers, which they have followed, ſo that not a Man is to be ſeen with his own Hair. The Strength of his Conſtitution, enables him to undergo all Hardſhips; and it is his Opinion that every Officer ought to be able to do the ſame, and to live and fare like the common Men.—To this End, he has forbidden his Officers all ſupernumerary Baggage, when they march into the Enemy's Country, as being only a uſeleſs Incumbrance to the Army, has allowed them only ſo much Cloaths as may be ſufficient, and no Proviſions but thoſe which proceed from the Commiſſaries; and, I hear, has put two or three Officers under Arreſt for refuſing to obey theſe Commands; and it is very likely they will be broke for ſetting a bad Example to the Army.—His Soldiers love and fear him, and are willing to comply with his Commands, becauſe he firſt ſets them an Example.—What great Things might not a few Officers like Lord Howe effect, with an Army of ſuch Men!"

Such Expedition was uſed in carrying up the Tents and Stores lately arrived here from England, that in 8 Days after their Arrival, they were ſafely conveyed up to the Army at Fort-Edward.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Jonathan Hampton, dated at Cole's Fort, on the Frontiers of New-Jerſey, June 24, 1758.

——"Serjeant Vantuyl, with 9 Soldiers, went in Purſuit of the Indians that murdered the 7 New-York Soldiers at Weſtfall's, the 13th Inſtant. About 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon they eſpied an Indian, when they were about 4 Miles in Pennſylvania; he was ſtanding towards a Saw-mill on Delaware River, about 5 Miles above this Fort. The Serjeant then conſulted his Men, and concluded the Indians muſt be by the River; upon which they went, and ſaw 10 Indians on an Iſland on the Jerſey Side, making a Raft. They then laid down their Packs and Hats, crawled up the River oppoſite to the Iſland, expecting them over. In this Poſture they lay all Night. In the Morning three Indians laid on their Guns and Packs to croſs; but, contrary to Expectation, towed the Raft up the River 200 Yards, our Men creeping up as they went up: About Sun-riſe they eſpied an Indian on their Side the River, coming toward them, but he ſeeing them, walked back leiſurely to his Gun, took it up, and gave the War Whoop, when 14 more roſe up, on which a ſharp Engagement enſued. Some of our Men fired on the Raft, when one Indian tumbled into the River. They immediately tree'd on both Sides, and five Rounds at leaſt were exchanged. We had one Man ſhot through the Leg, but killed three Indians on Land, beſides one in the Water. And as the Engagement was by the River Side, they dragged them into the River. The Indians on the Iſland kept firing all the Time on our Right, but at too great a Diſtance to fear any Thing. The Indians afterwards fled, and left 4 good Guns, 4 Tomahawks, 3 Spears, 18 Pair of Moccaſeens, 16 Pair of Indian Stockings, 5 Shirts, 12 Blankets, 3 Hats, 1 laced Coat, 5 Silver Buckles, 10 Belts, 3 Strings of Wampum, 5 Scalping Knives, 4 Scalps juſt taken, with many Trifles more.

"Yeſterday one William Ward was killed and ſcalped near the Head-Quarters, and a Houſe was burnt on Pennſylvania Side, at the ſame Time.

A Liſt of the Killed in Jerſey, ſince May 1757.

May 2. Jacob Van Kamp, and Peter Brink, near the Head-Quarters.——Nov. 9. John Doty, and Otho M'Hurin, near the ſame Place.——Nov. 10. Gideon Weſtbrook, near Brink's Fort.——Nov. 11. John Preſsler.——May 15, 1758. Nicholas Cole's 4 Children, and 3 Germans.——May 25. Mary Willing, near Fort-Gardiner.——June 8. Cornelius Weſtbrook, and Abraham Weſtbrook. In this Surprize an Indian was killed.——June 12. Baſtian Courtract, and Mary Kirkindale: Here an Indian was likewiſe killed by a Boy. This Indian was named Armſtrong, and lived in great Friendſhip with the Engliſh People, ſomewhere near that Neighbourhood!—On the Boy's ſetting out to run, after his Companion was killed by his Side, this Indian gave him Chace, and the Boy finding he could not well eſcape the Hatchet, reſolutely turned and faced him; and having his Fire reſerv'd, on the Indian's near Approach he let fly, and killed him outright. Some few Days after he was found laid cloſe under a Log, with his two Blankets, Tomahawk, Pipe and Tobacco Pouch by his Side; when thoſe that found him took off his Scalp, and brought it down to Amboy.——June 13. At Urian Weſtfall's, eight Men.——June 23. William Ward.

"We have now 200 Soldiers on our Frontiers, which keeps the Inhabitants from leaving their Habitations.

"Three of our Jerſey Men went over the River to plow, near the Fort at Pequaſe, when a Party of Indians fell upon them, and murdered and ſcalped them. This was the 14th Inſtant."

By Saturday's Mail from Albany, we learn, That 12 of our Mohawks, having been out on a Scout upwards of 50 Days, were at laſt returned with ſeveral Scalps; and alſo brought in a Perſon of Diſtinction Priſoner, whom they took near Montreal as he was riding out.

By Letters brought from the Army above, we are further told, that General Abercrombie, with his Army, is at the Lake; And, that as ſoon as he arrived there, he iſſued a Manifeſto, declaring, That as the Capitulation at Fort William-Henry was moſt ſhamefully broke, to the Diſgrace of the French Nation, he ordered all the Engliſhmen taken at the Fort at that Time, to re-aſſume their Places in the Army; further declaring, That, if any of them ſhould be maltreated on that Account, he would take ſuch Steps, in cauſing Reprifals to be made, as would ſufficiently make Amends for the Injury.

There were alſo three Engliſh Deſerters from the French, who came into Albany laſt Wedneſday, the one taken on the Ohio, another at Oſwego, and the third in Bradſtreet's Battle. They give out, that the Enemy were but juſt preparing to make Head againſt our preſent Motions above, when they came away; and that their Numbers were but ſmall.

Extract of a Letter from James Wright, Commander of the Privateer Sloop Harlequin, of this Port, to his Owners, dated at Iſabella-Bay, May 20, 1758.

GENTLEMEN,

"Cruizing off Cape-François the 10th Inſtant, I was ſurrounded by a French Fleet of 16 Sail, Twelve of which were Merchantmen, convoyed by a 74 Gun Ship and three Frigates; they gave us Chace, but could not come up with us, and they guarded their Convoy ſo well that it was impoſſible to pick up any of them. His Majeſty's Ships the Edinburgh and Aſſiſtance were to Leeward, and could not get up to engage the French Men of War, ſo that they all got ſafe into the Cape. I beat up to Windward, and on the 18th, I took the Brig Semidore, of Bourdeaux, in Company with Captain Chandler, in the Defiance of Rhode-Iſland, no other Privateer whatſoever then in Sight; but to my great Surprize, when I got into Iſabella-Bay, Captain Troup of the Sturdy-Beggar, Captain Caldwal of the Colonel Preſcot, Captain Jauncey of the Royal-Hunter, Captain Wright of the Johnſton, Captain Dobbs of the Goldfinch, and Captain Stevenſon of the Stanwix, of Philadelphia, all claimed Part, tho' not one of them were within ſeveral Leagues of me when the Brig ſtruck: The Frenchmen themſelves will declare the ſame."

Extract of a Letter from on board the Privateer Ship Duke of Cumberland, John Luſh, Commander, of this Port, dated at Monto-Chriſto, May 30, 1758.

"Cruizing off Cape-François, on the Morning of the 17th Inſtant, ſaw a Sail bearing S. S. W. to which we gave Chace, and as ſoon as the Sun aroſe, hoiſted our Colours, and fired a Gun to Leeward; but not being anſwered, we gave her a Bow Chace, which ſhe ſoon returned with her Stern Chace, and immediately tacked, which brought us ſo cloſe that we exchanged our Broadſides, and ſtood after her, but could not come up, tho' it was light Breezes, and we uſed our Oars, till Ten A. M. when we ranged up along Side, and engaged Monſieur for two Glaſſes, but could not board him, as he kept edging away till a French 74 Gun Ship hove in Sight, when we gave over Chace, having our Boatſwain and a Negro killed, 6 Men blown up and 5 wounded, beſides our Maſts, Yards, Sails and Rigging received conſiderable Damage. The Ship we engaged, as we were afterwards informed, mounted 26 Nine-pounders, and had 150 Men, eleven of whom were wounded, beſides their ſecond Captain killed. We hear eight Sail of the Line are hourly expected at the Cape from Old France, from whence they are to proceed to the Relief of Louiſburg.——We intend to ſpend the Remainder of our Cruize off the Cacaſes, as we have certain Intelligence that 6 or 7 French Sugar Ships are ſoon to ſail from the Cape for Old France, and we expect to have our Share of them."

The following Privateers are now at the Watering-Place, and will ſoon be ready to proceed on their reſpective Cruizes, viz.

The Ship Oliver Cromwell, John Nicoll, Commander.

The Snow Boſcawen, Anthony Rutgers, Commander.

The Snow Royal-Heſter, —— Dale, Commander.

The Snow General Abercrombie, Mark Valentine, Commander.

The Snow Revenge, John Pell, Commander.

The Brig King George, Viner Leaycraft, Commander.

The Brig Prince of Orange, Richard Thomas, Commander. And,

Brig George, Peter Haly, Commander.

Extract of a Letter from Madeira, dated May 9, 1758; brought hither by Capt. Smith, in a ſhort Paſſage from that Iſland.

"——By a Daniſh outward-bound Indiaman now here, we are informed, That 12,000 French, the poor Remains of their Army, in Germany, were ſurrounded by the Pruſſians and Hanoverians, and forced to lay down their Arms, and ſurrender themſelves Priſoners to the Pruſſians: And that Schwendnitz had ſurrendered to that glorious Monarch.——"

Sunday laſt arrived here a French Dutch Schooner, taken off Cape-François by the Captains Stephenſon and Turner, of this Place, and Capt. Hopkins, of Rhode-Iſland; ſhe was bound from the Cape for St. Euſtatia, and is laden with Sugars.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Stephenſon, of the Stanwix Privateer of this Port, to his Owners; dated at Monto-Chriſto, June 16, 1758.

"I am heartily ſorry to inform you of Captain M'Pherſon's ill Fate, who happened to fall in with a French Store-ſhip, mounting 36 Carriage Guns, with Men in Proportion, which he engaged, and fought till 70 of his Men being either killed or wounded, and his own right Arm ſhot off, he was forced to ſtrike to the Enemy, who, boarding him immediately, uſed him cruelly, plundered him of every Thing, threw his Guns overboard, cut down his Maſts, and, after taking out his Sails, and ſome of his Officers, left him and the Survivors of his helpleſs Crew a mere Wreck on the mercileſs Ocean.

"——The French retook a Dutch Ship which Captain M'Pherſon had brought to, and finding her Papers on board the Britannia, carried her into Cape-François, and condemned her."

Captain

Captain Stephenſon, in the Snow Recovery, is arrived at New-Caſtle from Londonderry; who was taken on his Paſſage, on the Coaſt of Ireland, but ranſomed for 200 Guineas.

We are aſſured his Excellency General Abercrombie has given Orders for holding a Packet ready to ſail on the ſhorteſt Notice.

By a Letter from Albany, dated June 30th, we learn, that two Men that had been taken about two Years ago, have made their Eſcape, having left Canada the 30th of May laſt; they report that the French are greatly diſtreſſed for want of Proviſions, and forced to eat Horſe, Dog and Cats Fleſh; that the Regulars go about in Parties, and wherever they find Proviſions, take it and put it in the King's Stores; that moſt of the 1500 French Indians, that were at the Taking of Fort William-Henry, have died of the Small-Pox; and that the Canadians are greatly harraſſed by what Indians they have. Lord Howe was on an Iſland in the Lake with about 6000 Men, and our Army in great Forwardneſs.
